About the English Language Studies (ELS) Program at MIT

The ELS program is a regular academic program open only to MIT students.

The curriculum is designed for non-native English speakers to foster effective communication in a variety of academic and professional contexts. Any bilingual/ESL undergraduate or graduate student earning a degree at MIT can register for an ELS subject.

The grade- and credit-bearing classes meet according to the MIT academic calendar and involve homework and exams.
CONCENTRATION OPTIONS

Any three subjects in the ELS program satisfies the concentration requirement.

Concentration Proposal approval must be obtained by the first week of classes second term junior year.

Concentration Advisor:
Jane Dunphy, Sr. Lecturer
dunphy@mit.edu; 14N-312, 3-3069

Assessing your level:
Contact any member of the ELS group to assess your level and advise on course placement.

English Evaluation Test (EET)
- Required for international graduate students whose primary language of instruction is not English
- Administered by the ELS program before the start of the Fall and Spring semesters
- Determines placement in specific ELS subjects
