Our Mission

MIT Global Studies and Languages is an academic unit in the School of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences (SHASS). The core mission of GSL is to generate cutting-edge research on international cultures and cultural globalization and to prepare students to be engaged global citizens, ready to live and work in an increasingly globalized and multicultural world.

Whether majoring in the sciences, engineering, management, or other fields, today’s students need to be equipped to work in the global context. GSL provides a wealth of coursework in languages, cultures, media, and history—promoting the critical thinking and communication skills, intellectual curiosity, and cross-cultural understanding that prepare students for this new environment.
