A HISTORY FROM WITHIN
When historians write about their own kin

Tuesday 10/1/19
5pm - 14E-304

Stéphane Gerson,
Director, Institute of French Studies,
New York University

Stéphane Gerson will historicize and analyze a mode of writing — the personal family history — that draws readers close to the complexities and contradictions of the social world, without any hope for full elucidation but without resignation either.

Gerson is author of The Pride of Place: Local Memories & Political Culture in Nineteenth-Century France and France in the World: A New Global History among others.
