Why Study German?
German is spoken by 95 million people, and is the most widely spoken language in Europe. Germany is a multicultural society, a global economic and scientific hub, and the largest European trading partner with the US. German is indispensable for advanced study in areas such as science and engineering, as well as literature, media, architecture, and cultural globalization.

At MIT, are you considering a MISTI internship in either Germany, or Switzerland? German IV (21G.404) or equivalent proficiency is required for participation.
CONCENTRATION OPTIONS
A. German I or II through German IV
B. German III and two subjects beyond in German
C. German IV or above, plus two more subjects
   – One subject allowed in English from 21G.055, .057, .058, or .059

Concentration Proposal approval must be obtained by the first week of classes second term junior year.

Concentration Advisor:
Ellen Crocker, Sr. Lecturer
