2020–2021
Why Study French?

French is the official language of 29 countries in 5 continents, with over 220 million native speakers! France and French-speaking countries play an active part in the world economy, accounting for some 20% of world trade in goods.

At MIT, are you considering a MISTI internship in either Belgium, France, or Switzerland? French IV (21G.304) or equivalent proficiency is required for participation.

FALL 2020 Tier II

21G.308 Writing (like the) French
For students who wish to continue with language study before taking upper-level subjects in literature or culture. Emphasis on development of reading and writing skills, review of the basic concepts of French grammar, and acquisition of precise vocabulary through the use of printed materials, short stories, and poems. Taught in French. HASS-H
MW, 3-4:30, C. Culot

21G.312 Basic Themes in French Literature and Culture: “Vive la France?” - The challenges of cultural identity and integration in Modern France
What does it mean to be a French citizen? For over a century, France has struggled with how to best bring citizens and immigrants into a common culture through civic and moral education. Designed to help students develop their vocabulary, further their mastery of grammar, and improve their ability to speak and write. Through in-class discussion and a variety of written assignments, students will learn what are the most important symbols of the French Republic and identify key events, figures and ideas that have historically aimed to convey a cohesive national cultural identity. Taught in French. HASS-H
MW, 1-2:30, I. Nicholas

FALL 2020 Tier III

21G.056/356 The “Making” of Modern Europe: 1789 to Present
Provides an overview of European history from 1789 to the present. Explores how the ideas of “European” and “modern” have been defined over time. Explores major events and the evolution of major tensions and issues that consumed Europe and Europe through the period including questions of identity, inclusion/exclusion, religion, and equality. Places major emphasis on the fiction, visual culture, and films of the century as the products and evidence of political, social and cultural change. Taught in English, with French language option (21G.356). HASS-H
TR, 11-12:30, C. Clark

21G.346 Topics in Modern French Literature and Culture: Masterpieces of French Cinema
We will visit the “masterpieces” of French cinema - world-renowned works by legendary French directors to better understand the central position Cinema occupies within French culture. From the earliest short films of the Lumière Brothers to contemporary feature length works, we will examine both the qualities of individual films and the cultural and historical factors that have shaped the development of the medium. Taught in French. HASS-H
T, 7-10, I. Nicholas
